

Roxanne Willinger
Dana Point, 92629

Many environmental laws have a strong basis emphasizing not just the letter of the laws, but also the spirit of those laws.

CEQA heavily leans towards honoring both whenever possible, to the maximum extent practicable----The City may be able to fulfill or claim they comply with the letter of the Public Resource Codes Sections of CEQA, but still fail the litmus test of the spirit of those laws/regs/guidelines.